Jazz i det lilla formatet

Lördagen den 24 februari kl. 15.00 får vi besök av två jazzduos. Hugo Palmsköld (g) & Jan Eriksson (dr) samt Ildo Nandja (b) & Rolf Jardemark (g). Välkommen!

Hugo Palmköld (g) & Jan Eriksson (dr)

The duet format with electric guitar and drums opens a virtually unlimited timbral palette if the players are prepared to go beyond the roles traditionally given to these instruments. The improvised music of Palmköld & Eriksson is rooted in both rock and jazz traditions. Improvisations take off from short, motivic compositions and are based on timbre and rhythm as much as on harmony and melody. Spontaneous interaction between the musicians is a key quality and the aim is to play a music that is intense, exciting and funny while yet being, as Mozart said, "pleasing to the ear".

Ildo Nandja (bas) & Rolf Jardemark (gitarr)

Ildo Nandja was born in Matola- Maputo, Moçambique. From a young age he engaged with playing music, starting with percussion instruments. Through his involvement in a local music and dance company, Ildo began playing the timbila, a traditional xylophone. His dedication led him to perform at festivals and events across Africa and Europe.

Now recognised as an outstanding and disciplined jazz musician, bass player and soloist, Ildo has collaborated with countless international and local musicians across Southern Africa and abroad. During his studies at the University of KwaZulu-Natal, he went to Virginia Commonwealth University in the US three times as part of an on-going exchange between the institutions. In South Africa he has participated in the University of South Africa's International Jazz School and lectured and performed at the Standard Bank National Youth Jazz Festival. Recently he accompanied his student ensemble to the Oslo Jazz Festival in Norway, and was one the headliners of the More Jazz Series 6 festival 2016. His debut album 'Páz a Todos', released in 2016, infuses traditional African rhythms and melodies with Jazz, contemporary and Latin music.

Ildo is currently living in the Netherlands where he's furthering his studies at the masters program of the Conservatorium Maastricht majoring in jazz double bass.

Rolf Jardemark har släppt elva album i eget namn. Han har dubbats till arvtagare åt Rune Gustafsson i SVT:s Jazzduellen, medverkat i över 60 tv-produktioner och i ett flertal musikaluppsättningar på GöteborgsOperan. Representerad i Scott Yanows bok "The Great Jazz Guitarists. Jamvärd på Jazzklubben Nefertitis tisdagsklubb Playhouse. Spelat med Bohuslän Big Band, Bob Mintzer, Lars Danielsson, Michael Ruff, Al Harewood, Nils Landgren, Gilbert holmström & John Stowell . Undervisar på Ljungskile Folkhögskolas jazzlinje.
